

HOLY SPIRIT

PREPARATORY SCHOOL

First Grade Reading

Summer Assignments

Academic Year - 2023-2024

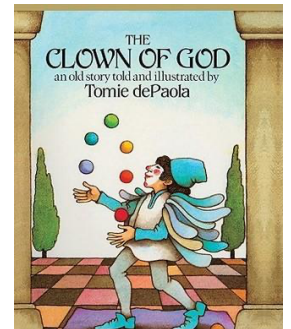

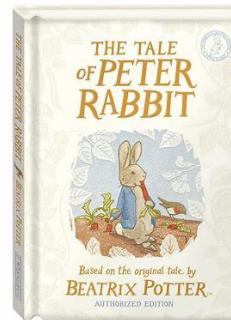

Course Information

Our goal is for the Holy Spirit Preparatory School student to be introduced to a wide breadth of classical books both in the classroom and over the summer. Students entering first grade will be required to read the selected Classical books during the school year. Over the summer, students are encouraged to read, if they are able to, or have these stories read out loud to them.

Textbook or Materials Required:

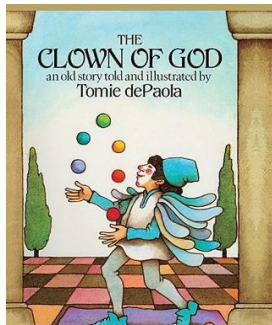

Required Readings:

The Clown of God by Tomie de Paola
The Tale of Peter Rabbit by Beatrix Potter

Contact jangelle@holyspiritprep.org for any questions

Summer Assignment

Details of Assignment

- Students need to independently complete the responses below for both books. This book review will be turned in the first week of school, and it will be counted toward their 1st quarter reading grade.

HOLY SPIRIT

PREPARATORY SCHOOL

Book Title:

Author:

Write what happened in the beginning, middle, and end of the story.

BEGINNING

MIDDLE

END

HOLY SPIRIT

PREPARATORY SCHOOL

Book Title:

Author:

Draw a picture of your favorite part of the story.